Awards for Excellence in Private Equity 2007

Award Categories and Nominations

Financial News has assembled a distinguished panel of more than 50 private equity experts from across Europe to vote on the nominees in each of the 16 categories.

In each category, Financial News' team of specialist private equity journalists and its correspondents across continental Europe have compiled a shortlist of between six and 10 candidates.

Panellists will vote confidentially on each award, giving scores out of five to the short-listed candidates. Panellists will not be able to vote for themselves, their firms or a transaction or fundraising they worked on, but they will be able to nominate their own choice of candidate in each award.

The winner in each category will be the firm with the highest overall score.
